Daily Phase 1 Listening & Attention Tasks

Monday: Grown ups – Oral segmenting is the opposite of oral blending that you did last week. This time the children say the sounds in 'robot talk'. It is the precursor to writing and spelling. Again, it requires no letter recognition at this stage, just careful listening. It too can be tricky for the children at first so they may require lots of praise and encouragement - make it fun! They will be copying the 'fred talk' you modelled last week and will most likely love taking on the role of the robot. If you made a robot last week, now is the perfect time to use it! Have a look at this video for information and examples of oral segmenting in action, then choose one of the games to have a go at. The games at the start of the video are the ones that will be most suitable for Nursery children but choose the ones you feel suit your child the best. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F5PqB-ndqkU (This video is for grown ups to watch so you can help your child)
Tuesday: Have a picnic and invite a special toy/teddy. Your toy can only understand 'robot talk' so you will all need to speak to them in your robot voice. For example 'Would you like a b-u-n?' 'Here is a r-e-d plate'. Grown ups – Throughout this week's activities, keep modelling your robot talk too. Take turns or do it together and keep it fun. Using words with 2 or 3 sounds, 4 at the most is best whilst your child is getting the hang of this skill.

Wednesday: Play I-Spy with your vehicles. Collect a selection of vehicles. Examples would be v-a-n c-ar b-u-s t-r-ai-n b-o-a-t Say 'I-Spy with my little eye a b-u-s' and the other person must pick up the correct vehicle. Now swap over and the other person has a go. Grown ups - Its always best to have the objects or pictures in front of the children for help and inspiration!

Thursday: Talk about a trip to the farm!(If you have been) Or you could use toy animals, photos, cards from a game you already have or maybe even draw your own! Good ones would be P-i-g C-ow Sh-ee-p G-oa-t D-u-ck C-a-t D-o-g H-e-n Take it in turns to say 'I went to the farm and I saw a p-i-g and the other person has to find the animal you are saying.

Friday: Bath time fun! Before your bath, choose some items that your grown up tells you are ok to take in the bath. Examples would be D-u-ck F-i-sh Sh-ar-k C-u-p D-o-ll T-e-d You will also need a sieve. Take it in turns to tell the other person to 'Go fish for a c-u-p' and they must scoop the correct item out with the sieve. This could also be played in a paddling pool or in a bowl or bucket of water.
