

Potential Congestion Spots

In order to mitigate risks as much as possible we have identified two areas on the school site where social distancing will be harder to maintain, highlighted with hazard lines . These 'bottlenecks' should be avoided where possible. We understand that this cannot always be the case so we ask parents to extra cautious when walking through these areas.

