

Knowledge Organiser Quiz

Deciduous Forest	Tropical Forest		Semi Desert
Trees drop their leaves in winter		Tall grassland and scattered trees		Sand and stone with few plants
		Further inland on East Coast, parts of New South Wales	Across Australia including large parts of Western Australia	Western and Central Australia

Key Vocabulary	Definition
Industry
	People living in Australia from the earliest times, before the arrival of settlers or colonists.
	A country or an area under the control of another country and occupied by settlers from that country.
Settler
	Where a raw resource is extracted from the earth, for example, coal.
	A group of countries that used to be part of the

Multiple Choice Quiz
1. Australia is located in:	A	The Southern Hemisphere
	B	The Northern Hemisphere
	C	The Atlantic Ocean
	D	England
2. Aboriginal' means	A	For a while
	B	From the end
	C	From the middle
	D	From the beginning
3. The capital city of Australia is:	A	Brisbane
	B	Canberra
	C	London
	D	New Zealand
4. There are a variety of biomes located in Australia including:	A	Temperate grassland, semi-desert, savannah and tropical forest
	B	Ice, mountains, tundra, coniferous forest
	C	Oceans, seas, marshland
	D	Insects, Mammals, Fish
5. Threats to Australia's biodiversity include:	A	Native species, cold weather
	B	The changing seasons
	C	Invasive species, climate change, urbanisation
	D	Rabbit proof fences

Multiple Choice Quiz

Task: Write an essay about Australia.

Remember to include:

- The location of Australia
- Captain James Cook
- Industry and Settlement in Australia.
- The climate/biomes in Australia
- Physical geography of Australia i.e. mountains, rivers, deserts
- Biodiversity in Australia